

contemplation avenue

Interesting fact

A dioecious plant, Chinese pistachio trees are either male or female, which means they respectively produce pollen or berries.

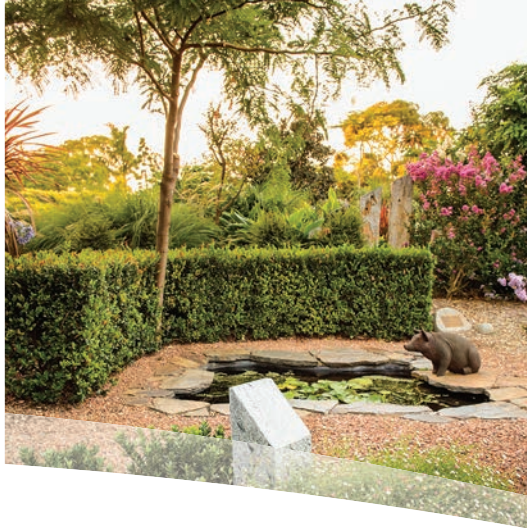

Dioecious

Adjective: dioecious

Having the male and female organs in separate and distinct individuals; having separate sexes.

centennial park

BOTANICS

- Gleditsia
- Chinese Pistachio
- Rubinia Mop Tops
- Seaside Daisy
- Euonymus Hedge
- Standard Topiary Hedge
- Lush Plants
- Date Palms
- Sword Ferns
- Personia
- Brunfelsia Hedge (every day flowers change colour)
- Rubinia
- Canna Lilies
- Capanioptus (Tuckeraroo Tree)
- Pink Wisteria
- Alpinia

DESCRIPTION

A walkway of wonder, filled with a multitude of exotic trees and plants. The vibrant yellow, orange and scarlet foliage of the Chinese Pistachio tree set amongst the Seaside Daisies and Robinia Mop Tops creates a breathtaking setting. Each turn offers a new species of plant life that perfectly matches the contemporary surrounds.

FACILITIES

- Car parking (40m)
- Toilets (150m)
- Ample water taps and bins

PEAK BLOOM TIMES

Year round